or ,Vishwanath Singha Biography by Various Sources The following is a brief biography of Vishwanath Singha, the screenwriter of the Bengali film, Icche (The truth). According to the Internet Movie Database, Vishwanath Singha was born on December 9, 1911 in Hilda, India. He was the son of Lalita Kanta Singha. As a boy, Vishwanath Singh was very studious, so much so that when he was in primary school, he was declared a high-school dropout. The only reason he was not sent to school was because he was enrolled in a rakshak Samaj, a group of high-school dropouts dedicated to social work. In the group, Vishwanath Singh was influenced by the ideas of Mohandas K. Gandhi, who was being held captive in Ahmedabad jail at the time. Vishwanath Singh is of the opinion that his social work with the Samaj helped him to realize his ambition of becoming an actor. The Tamil movie Kalakka Povathu Yaaru, directed by Kamal Haasan, was released in 1989. The film was a significant box-office hit in Tamil Nadu. Vishwanath Singha wrote the dialogues for this film. The English movie, Icche, was released in the United States in January, 2007. This is the story of a son who reveals to his dying father the truth about his birth and family background. The film was directed by Mrinal Sen and produced by Ashok Roy and Film and Television Institute of India (FTII). Icche was released in India on August 26, 2007. It was released worldwide on September 22, 2007. The film was dubbed into Hindi, Tamil, Telugu and Malayalam. The Tamil version was written by K. N. Ravikumar. The first day of release, the film received mixed reviews from critics and audiences. The Times of India wrote in its review, "The main novelty of this film is the use of the medium of animation for the portrayal of the political and social scenes. The music is an added bonus. The film is almost an adaption of a novel by Nandan. In this work, the author takes up the story of a man in the late 1950s who lives with his grown-up son, though he himself is a child prodigy, and has to deal with his son's inability to cope with life." The film grossed Rs. 24 crore in its opening weekend. The film completed a 100-day run in India. The film also earned Rs. 50 crore in the Indian market. Vishwanath Singha wrote the dialogues for the film. He is a retired theatre director and a veteran of more than 50 films. The film won the National Film Award for Best Feature Film in
